

BetterBuy: Contribution Exchange

- This is a reward exchange store for players who have contributed to the game, such as by submitting code, discovering bugs, creating mods, and more.
- Please do not trade or resell Contribution Points or merchandise.
- This service is maintained purely out of passion and may be modified or discontinued in the future. Thank you for your understanding.

Contribution Points

Contribution Points are the currency used in “BetterBuy: Contribution Exchange”. They can be earned in the following ways:

High-Quality Steam Workshop Mods

Steam Workshop mods with at least 5 upvotes are eligible. Each downvote cancels out 2 upvotes.

The mod must be publicly visible.

- 1 Subscription = 300 Contribution Points
- 1 Favorite = 2,500 Contribution Points
- 1 Upvote = 2,500 Contribution Points

How to Redeem

After logging in, go to <https://bettercontribution.exlb.net/workshop-content>.

Enter the Steam Workshop ID of the mod you published. You can find the Workshop ID on the mod's Steam Workshop page.

For example, the Workshop ID in:

<https://steamcommunity.com/sharedfiles/filedetails/?id=3747346049> is: 3747346049

If you received a redemption key from an event, make sure to keep the minus sign (-) at the beginning of the key. For example: -3120281985224454716

GitHub Open-Source Contributions / VPet Testing Group

Issues

Contribution Points are calculated based on the issue's label and severity:

- Enhancement (enhancement): 1,000 Contribution Points
- Bug (bug): 10,000 Contribution Points
- Critical Bug: 20,000 Contribution Points or more

Pull Requests

Contribution Points are calculated based on the type and significance of the contribution:

- Translation: Calculated based on the number of changed lines. 1 line = 100 Contribution Points or more.
- Bug Fix: 15,000 Contribution Points or more.
- Feature Addition: 15,000 Contribution Points or more.
- Pull requests that are not approved or merged: Evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

These are only the base values. The actual amount may be increased depending on the importance of the contribution and other factors.

How to Redeem

Please contact me via email at service@exlb.net and include the following information:

- Your Steam 64-bit ID
- The Issue ID, Pull Request ID, or other evidence that proves your contribution
- To verify your identity, please send the email from the email address associated with your GitHub account

Community Activity / Helping Others

If you help make the community a better place, we may also award you Contribution Points.

For example, you may earn Contribution Points by helping other players solve VPet-related problems or by creating VPet-related content, such as illustrations or artwork.

Please contact me via email at service@exlb.net and include the following information:

- Your Steam 64-bit ID
- Evidence or screenshots showing your community activity and how you helped others

Please don't be shy about emailing me! Contribution Points exist specifically to reward players who contribute to the game. I'm honestly a bit lazy, so I probably won't proactively reach out to you myself. (
